

RACE DRIVER KILLED
TESTING SPEED CAR

Hits Pole at Cross River in Westchester on Tryout for Danbury Fair.

ANOTHER SLIGHTLY HURT

Clarence Hopkins, Garage Owner, Had Built Automobile for Special Events.

A racing automobile, being tried out for the races at the Danbury Fair, got away from Clarence Hopkins, 27, of Katonah, while going at high speed, struck a telegraph pole and instantly killed Hopkins yesterday at Cross River, Westchester county. Hopkins was to have driven the car in the races in the afternoon.

The machine, capable of a speed of more than 100 miles an hour, was demolished. Roy Fisher, who was riding with Hopkins, escaped with slight injuries.

Hopkins owned a garage at Katonah where he lived with his wife and one child. He had built the racing machine especially for the Danbury Fair. Near Cross River, the car in some manner got beyond control, shot off the road into a ditch and rammed the pole. The machine turned over and Hopkins' back was broken. Fisher dragged himself to the nearest farmhouse. Dr. J. A. C.
MacPhail was called and pronounced Hopkins dead. The physician also attended Fisher's injuries.

FERRY CONCESSIONS
BRING $5,150 A YEAR

Whalen Holds Auction of Privileges on Greenpoint Line.

Privileges for conducting stands for the sale of newspapers, candy, fruit, tobacco and other articles in the terminal buildings of the Greenpoint ferry were sold yesterday at public auction for $5,150 a year by Commissioner Grover A. Whalen of the Department of Plant and Structures. Under private operation of the ferry these stands, the privileges for both the Greenpoint and the Manhattan terminals, were held by one concessionaire, who paid only $100 a month for the whole business.
Commissioner Whalen sold the Manhattan terminal privileges for $2,200, the Greenpoint rights for $1,500, the weighing machine privileges for $100 and $450, respectively, and the boot-black and music privileges on the ferryboats for $500 and $100 a year, respectively.

TO HONOR MEMORY
OF FATHER MULRY
Mass Will Be Celebrated at Fordham on Wednesday.

The memory of the late Joseph A.
Mulry, S. J., who became president of Fordham University in April, 1915, and was that institution's youngest greatest, whose death occurred August 31 last in Philadelphia, following a long illness, will be honored next Wednesday —Columbus Day—in the Fordham College church. A memorial mass for the repose of his soul will be celebrated at 10 A. M. by the Rev. Edward P. Tivnan, S. J., who succeeded Father Mulry as president of Fordham, and it is expected that because of the holiday many of the Fordham alumni will be present at the services. Among them he was known as "Father Joe."

Father Mulry was a native New Yorker, who entered the Jesuit order when he was only 15 years old. He taught at Boston College, was vice-president at Loyola College, Baltimore, and later became prefect of discipline at Georgetown University. Then he became president of Fordham University in 1915, when he succeeded the Rev.
 Thomas J. McCloskey, S. J. He made a wide reputation as a public speaker.

NATIONAL CITY BANK
LOOT TRIPS UP YOUTHS

Arrested When They Try to Cash Coupon of Stolen Bond.

Edmond Fought, aged 18, of 1961 Wallace avenue, The Bronx, and Dennis Doyle, aged 21, of 219 Hughes avenue, The Bronx, were locked up in the 1st Thirtieth street station yesterday when, it is alleged, they tried to cash a coupon of a $1,000 bond of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad, said to have been stolen from the National City Bank.

Detective Foley said the prisoners told him they were in Washington Friday and a man had tried to sell them the bond. They feared it might be stolen property, and while they were debating whether to buy it the man disappeared, leaving the bond with them. William J. McGill, cashier of the Mutual Bank, 49 West Thirty-third street, caused their arrest when he compared the number on the coupon with the numbers on a list of alleged stolen bonds.

USED STOVE AS BANK;
WIFE LIGHTS THE FIRE

Giuseppe Silvio, a truck walker employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad and living a few miles from New Brunswick, N. J., placed $600, his life's savings, in a stove. Yesterday Mrs. Silvio, unaware that her husband had selected the stove as a cache against burglars, lit a fire.
 Silvio, from his post of duty, saw the smoke curling from the chimney, hastened home and sought frantically to put the fire out.
 In the excitement the stove was overturned and set fire to Silvio's home. New Brunswick firemen saved the house from destruction, but the money was burned to ashes. Silvio said that he will put his next savings in a savings bank.

MISSISSIPPI WINS
INSURANCE FIGHT

Brought Anti-Trust Action Against 139 Companies
15 Years Ago.

PENALTIES OF $13,000,000

State However Will Show Clemency to Ousted Fire Associations.

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 8.—The State of Mississippi won a complete victory over the 139 fire insurance companies defendants in an anti-trust suit in a decision to-day by Chancellor Stricker, who ruled that the State inspection and advisory rating bureau was merely the old Southeastern Tariff Association in disguise, as claimed by the State authorities. The association was barred from doing business in the State fifteen years ago.

Although penalties aggregating nearly $13,000,000 were assessed against the defendant companies, the Chancellor imposed only the minimum penalty of $300 a day provided by the statute, in-effect from 1908 to 1919, and a fine of $25 a day from 1919 up to the time the companies withdrew from business in this State, during the early part of the current year. The Legislature in 1919 reduced the minimum penalty to $20 a day.

"We exercise mercy as well as justice in this court," said Chancellor Stricker.

"The purpose of the anti-trust law is to suppress the evil rather than punish the offenders."
 The maximum penalty fixed by the law is $5,000 a day.
 The anti-trust suit was brought originally against 139 fire insurance companies, but some time ago Chancellor Stricker dismissed the case as to fifty-five reinsurance companies which had been made defendants in the action filed by Stokes V. Robertson, State revenue agent. The decision of Chancellor Stricker was orally delivered, and occupied a period of more than three hours.

HELD IN MURDER QUEST.

Taxicab Driver Admits Carrying Alleged Slayers.

PHILIPSBURG, N. J., Oct. 8.—It became known here to-day that Ottavio Sparacio, an Easton taxicab driver, was arrested here Wednesday and immediately taken to Sussex county in connection with the killing of Albert Koster at Cat Swamp June 14 last, following the theft of a truck laden with silk.
 According to a statement made to-day by Prosecutor Van Blarcom of Sussex county Sparacio has made a confession admitting that he drove the men to the scene of the slaying from Easton.
 Another man has also been arrested, but the authorities refuse to reveal his identity.

DORT Quality Goes Clear Through

On October 12th

PERHAPS no event in recent motor history has created so much interest and enthusiasm as the now famous Dort contest to decide who is New York's most popular woman motorist.

ON October 12th the Dort prize coupe will be publicly presented to the winner. Under the auspices of a committee of prominent men and women headed by Alexander Johnston, editor of Motor, the votes will be counted and the name of the winner will be displayed in our showrooms. No ballots may be cast after midnight, October 10th.

The Famous Dort Coupe

COME and see the exhibition of the new and distinctive Dort cars.

- See a real coupe as Dort builds it.
- See the most beautiful cars in the popular priced class.
- See the cut out chassis with the motor in operation.
- See the photos of the celebrated stars who are entered in the popularity contest.

DON'T miss this exhibition. It will be satisfying to you to see cars of the Dort beauty and quality being sold at such prices.
